

APPEAL TO FRIENDS

Americans at Shanghai Urge Home Government to Act.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

They Ask Co-operation With the Other Powers.

HEAVY FORCE NEEDED

NEW YORK, August 17.—The following letter and set of resolutions, adopted by the American Association in China, were received today at the offices of the Associated Press, New York city:

The American Association in China, SHANGHAI, July 20, 1900.

In view of the extremely critical condition of affairs in this empire, and especially as it affects the lives and interests of our own people, a large number of Americans, including many refugees from interior parts, met in general meeting here on July 13, and passed the inclosed resolutions:

We strongly feel the necessity of awakening the great mass of our fellow citizens to the extreme peril to which their kindred are being subjected in this empire.

Before peace shall have been finally restored hundreds of our people will have been offered up as sacrifices. Not only, who may die a valiant death upon the field of battle, but women and children, who in their defenseless condition, will, and possibly have already become the victims of horrible insults, indignities and tortures, finding relief only in death.

To prevent and, if that is impossible, as we very greatly fear, to check the outrages and cruelties to which our fellow citizens on the Tchi are instant. This is no ordinary warfare, our people at home should comprehend that there is no quarter except such as proceeds death with the most cruel tortures. The untold savagery of the early times of America were not more bloodthirsty in their massacres of the pioneers than is the irrepressible Chinese struggle.

We therefore ask that our people, ever valiant and humane, will arise in their might and hurl their forces at the borders of this empire, to the rescue of all the foreigners within the borders of this Chinese empire.

Yours very sincerely, V. G. LYMAN, Secretary.

The Resolutions Adopted.

Resolutions and telegrams adopted at a public meeting of Americans at Shanghai July 13, 1900.

"Whereas a popular movement has arisen and gathered force during the past few months in some of the northern provinces of China, having for its primary and professed purpose the forcible expulsion from the country of all aliens of every nationality and profession, and the extermination of all foreigners wherever it has obtained a foothold, and

"Whereas owing to the direct encouragement of the imperial government and the active participation of the prominent officials, the rising (called the Boxers) has assumed the most alarming proportions, and has been continuously bombarded and virtually destroyed the foreign settlements at Tien Tsin and Taku, and the railroads, and has been prevented from the rescue of the foreign ministers and residents of Peking, who have been besieged in the legations for over a month, and in incessant attack, and being, at the last, reduced to utter exhaustion and despair,

Opposition to Relief Force.

"Whereas it was deemed essential for the powers to hand force and proceed with all haste to their relief and rescue, but their efforts were totally frustrated by the armed opposition of government troops and Boxers in overwhelming numbers, and

"Whereas the lives of American citizens have been and still are in extreme jeopardy, their property looted and destroyed, and the work of a lifetime brought to naught; and

"Whereas the interests of Americans generally are second to none in the section of the world in which the present movement, while the means employed for their protection have been, in the main, the work of other friendly foreign powers, therefore, be it,

"Resolved, 1. That it is the duty of our government to use all the forces available in its command, in conjunction with the forces of other powers, in immediate service in China for the restoration of order, the protection of its citizens and the securing of the return of the legations; and that the authorities against a recurrence of such previous outrages as they are now facing, and that the complete punishment of those responsible for the same, and that the full and complete satisfaction of the injured parties be secured.

"Resolved, 2. That land forces should be properly detailed for this service, and that an adequate force of our navy should be dispatched to and maintained at all threatened points on the coasts and rivers of China.

"Resolved, 3. That in the belief that our fellow citizens have been inadequately protected, the gravity of the situation, while it distresses all Americans here, there is a feeling of indignation and indignation, and that the American people be sent to the Associated Press in order further to acquaint them with the pressing needs of the situation.

The War to Visit Paris.

PARIS, August 17.—It is officially announced, according to the Petit Bleu, that the czar will visit Paris, arriving at Cherbourg September 14, reaching Paris the next day and remaining here five or six days. It is added that his highness will come alone, will reside at the Russian embassy while in this city.

The Baltimore Sails for Belfast.

LONDON, August 17.—The United States cruiser Baltimore, with Rear Admiral C. Watson on board, homeward bound from Manila, sailed from Gravesend today for Belfast.

Money for British Prisoners.

CAPE TOWN, August 17.—An American consular official has gone from Lorenzo Marques to Natal to distribute money to the British prisoners there, each of whom receives 4s.

Lady Seymour in Poor Health.

MONTREAL, August 17.—Lady Seymour, wife of the British admiral now engaged in naval operations in China, is here in poor health. Her ladyship is in poor health. She will sail for England on Saturday. The party is composed of Dr. C. Kavanagh, Mrs. Pole-Carew, Miss Seymour and Miss Armit.

Smallpox at Erie, Pa.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 17.—A special from Erie, Pa., says: Seven cases of smallpox have developed in this city, several more are suspected and the people of fully half of one ward have been exposed.

A rigid quarantine has been established. The disease was brought here by a molder, Edward Schade, who was working in Cleveland, all the cases so far are of light nature.

Mr. Hanna Selects Advisers.

CHICAGO, August 17.—Cyrus Field Adams, a colored editor, linguist and orator, and Bishop Arnold of Ohio, also colored, have been appointed by Chairman Hanna members of the advisory committee of the republican national committee.

NEWPORT TENNIS GAMES

FINE WEATHER AND LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE COURTS.

Gore Beats Black and G. L. Wrenn, Jr., Beats R. D. Wrenn—Other Results.

NEWPORT, R. I., August 17.—The third round in the tennis tournament here was begun this forenoon under favorable conditions. A large number of tennis enthusiasts and society people were at the Casino when play was started.

The day had survived the early matches were paired as follows: Davis and Wright, Larned and Chace, R. D. Wrenn and G. L. Wrenn, Jr., and Black and Gore. The last named had the honor of being placed on the championship court, though the other matches were about as interesting and important. The honor was undoubtedly given them as visitors.

The two Englishmen played the game that has been experienced there since 1880.

Mr. Thropp resides at Everett, and is largely interested in coal and iron industries, employing a small army of men. He is also interested in other business pursuits and is in close touch with the business interests of the state.

A Swift Congressional Fight.

"We will have no fight throughout the state," he said, "for the reason that the legislature to choose a successor to the Senate in Senator Quay's place will also be elected. There will be more or less fusion of the democratic and independent republican nominees in districts which are heavily republican, and this condition will not only do away with the amount of uncertainty in these districts. Nevertheless, not only do I think that the present representation of the state in the legislature will be maintained, but I look for a gain of three or possibly four districts now represented by democrats."

"If this gain is made it will be of the utmost importance as affecting the complexion of the House of Representatives, and set a loss of an equal number of republican districts elsewhere. In the twenty-seventh district Mr. Shiley, who was returned to the present Congress, is a democrat, and is running as a republican, and his re-election would count as a loss of one democratic member, and a gain of one republican. It is much too early to even venture an opinion as to the result of the legislative and consequent senatorial fight."

Bryan's Double-Stringed Bow.

"It is my opinion that there is a real deal of method in Mr. Bryan's madness in forcing the silver issue down the Kansas City convention and then ignoring the question in his Indianapolis speech. If he cannot carry the White House, he will try a double stringer into the Senate. Nebraska elects a democratic legislator, and if he is defeated for the presidency, I have no doubt he will be elected as a senator next winter as a senator from that state."

The sentiment all through my state is one of sympathy for the president and his administration. I think, and I believe that most of our people coincide, that he has handled the situation in a masterly manner. Our business men wish no disturbance of present conditions, and it is my belief that he will carry the White House, and that he will try a double stringer into the Senate. Nebraska elects a democratic legislator, and if he is defeated for the presidency, I have no doubt he will be elected as a senator next winter as a senator from that state."

The match between the Wrenns was more interesting because more varied. Both played a splendid all-round game. George started with a rush, obtaining a lead of 5-1. The former champion then took three consecutive games. George took the next and the set on four netted balls.

G. L. Wrenn ran to the lead again in the second set, winning four games to his brother's one. The next went to Davis three times before George won it and had the same lead as in the first set. Bob was trying to work up a lead, but he lost the seventh game at 2-3. This gave George a lead of two sets to none.

Bob had no interest in being defeated in straight sets and played with great dash. George, however, was playing in the best form he has ever shown, and after a full run he won the set on five netted balls and placed beautifully from the net.

G. L. Wrenn, Jr., beat R. D. Wrenn, 6-4, 6-4.

The Larned-Chace match brought together two men who have not played much for a year or two. Both showed that they had not lost their touch, and were still able to play even with the younger men. Chace played the same varied game that he has always had, and Larned was the most of the time. In the first set Chace got only the fourth and sixth games. In the second he got only the sixth.

In the third set Davis won eight points, Larned playing with a dash that he was wholly unable to meet.

In the fourth set Davis won the first two games, and then he did some wonderful court covering, and got back seemingly impossible shots. Chace took the first game. They alternated until he had a lead, 4-3. Then a long rally, which was won by Larned, and it was 4-4. Chace was playing at the top of his game, now, and won the odd set on four netted balls.

The next and the set was won on four netted balls.

The Davis-Wright match followed on the championship court. Davis' strong point was his service and smashing a net; Wright's ability to cover his court and get everything back. The only game Davis lost on his serve was the eighth, in the third set, which was won by Wright.

Wright was well-placed, in the first set, and won it on five netted balls. In the second set Davis won the first and ninth on his serve. The tenth and the set went to Davis after twelve games.

W. A. Larned beat M. G. Chace, 6-2, 6-1, 6-4.

The second was won on service, until the seventh game, when Wright's double fault, and out. Davis made it tall by taking the next on Davis' serve. Davis ran the set, taking the two games, one at fifteen and the other after twice double faults.

Wright got the lead in the third set by well-placed shots on the side lines. The games were 3-1 and then 3-3. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

THE KEYSTONE STATE

Congressman Thropp, Speaks of the Delegation Fight.

THE HONOR OF THE FLAG

He Believes Three Members May Be Gained.

THE INDEPENDENT VOTE

In an interview with a Star reporter at the Arlington this morning Congressman Joseph E. Thropp, representing the twenty-third Pennsylvania district, looked for the result of the congressional nominees in the keystone state that has been experienced there since 1880.

Mr. Thropp resides at Everett, and is largely interested in coal and iron industries, employing a small army of men. He is also interested in other business pursuits and is in close touch with the business interests of the state.

A Swift Congressional Fight.

"We will have no fight throughout the state," he said, "for the reason that the legislature to choose a successor to the Senate in Senator Quay's place will also be elected. There will be more or less fusion of the democratic and independent republican nominees in districts which are heavily republican, and this condition will not only do away with the amount of uncertainty in these districts. Nevertheless, not only do I think that the present representation of the state in the legislature will be maintained, but I look for a gain of three or possibly four districts now represented by democrats."

"If this gain is made it will be of the utmost importance as affecting the complexion of the House of Representatives, and set a loss of an equal number of republican districts elsewhere. In the twenty-seventh district Mr. Shiley, who was returned to the present Congress, is a democrat, and is running as a republican, and his re-election would count as a loss of one democratic member, and a gain of one republican. It is much too early to even venture an opinion as to the result of the legislative and consequent senatorial fight."

Bryan's Double-Stringed Bow.

"It is my opinion that there is a real deal of method in Mr. Bryan's madness in forcing the silver issue down the Kansas City convention and then ignoring the question in his Indianapolis speech. If he cannot carry the White House, he will try a double stringer into the Senate. Nebraska elects a democratic legislator, and if he is defeated for the presidency, I have no doubt he will be elected as a senator next winter as a senator from that state."

The sentiment all through my state is one of sympathy for the president and his administration. I think, and I believe that most of our people coincide, that he has handled the situation in a masterly manner. Our business men wish no disturbance of present conditions, and it is my belief that he will carry the White House, and that he will try a double stringer into the Senate. Nebraska elects a democratic legislator, and if he is defeated for the presidency, I have no doubt he will be elected as a senator next winter as a senator from that state."

The match between the Wrenns was more interesting because more varied. Both played a splendid all-round game. George started with a rush, obtaining a lead of 5-1. The former champion then took three consecutive games. George took the next and the set on four netted balls.

G. L. Wrenn ran to the lead again in the second set, winning four games to his brother's one. The next went to Davis three times before George won it and had the same lead as in the first set. Bob was trying to work up a lead, but he lost the seventh game at 2-3. This gave George a lead of two sets to none.

Bob had no interest in being defeated in straight sets and played with great dash. George, however, was playing in the best form he has ever shown, and after a full run he won the set on five netted balls and placed beautifully from the net.

G. L. Wrenn, Jr., beat R. D. Wrenn, 6-4, 6-4.

The Larned-Chace match brought together two men who have not played much for a year or two. Both showed that they had not lost their touch, and were still able to play even with the younger men. Chace played the same varied game that he has always had, and Larned was the most of the time. In the first set Chace got only the fourth and sixth games. In the second he got only the sixth.

In the third set Davis won eight points, Larned playing with a dash that he was wholly unable to meet.

In the fourth set Davis won the first two games, and then he did some wonderful court covering, and got back seemingly impossible shots. Chace took the first game. They alternated until he had a lead, 4-3. Then a long rally, which was won by Larned, and it was 4-4. Chace was playing at the top of his game, now, and won the odd set on four netted balls.

The next and the set was won on four netted balls.

The Davis-Wright match followed on the championship court. Davis' strong point was his service and smashing a net; Wright's ability to cover his court and get everything back. The only game Davis lost on his serve was the eighth, in the third set, which was won by Wright.

Wright was well-placed, in the first set, and won it on five netted balls. In the second set Davis won the first and ninth on his serve. The tenth and the set went to Davis after twelve games.

W. A. Larned beat M. G. Chace, 6-2, 6-1, 6-4.

The second was won on service, until the seventh game, when Wright's double fault, and out. Davis made it tall by taking the next on Davis' serve. Davis ran the set, taking the two games, one at fifteen and the other after twice double faults.

Wright got the lead in the third set by well-placed shots on the side lines. The games were 3-1 and then 3-3. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game. The next game Davis had at 40-15 and was within a point of the set, but Davis took five straight points and the game.

The next game Davis had at